Consent to Disclosure of Personal Information

The applicant/s and guarantor, if applicable, agree to the SADC Côte-Nord:

(i) conducting investigations, particularly aiming to collect information about personal and commercial offers concerning them, their administrators or executive officers (collectively referred to as "Information"), among private individuals, legal entities, authorities, institutions or government agencies the SADC Côte-Nord deems necessary to render a decision in connection with the application and to administer the loan, if a loan is granted, the applicant/s or guarantor in this case being a legal entity, affirms it was authorized by these individuals to give consent in their names;

(ii) sharing with other financial institutions or funding partners the collected information in connection with any project under consideration; and

(iii) sharing with credit agencies the collected information for the purpose of performing an analysis of the credit file by the SADC Côte-Nord and other financial institutions.

The applicant/s and the guarantor are not required by law to consent to such investigations, collection and exchange of information; however, failure to consent to such disclosure could prevent the SADC Côte-Nord from considering any application for funding.

The applicant/s acknowledge/s that the SADC Côte-Nord will use the collected information to render a decision with respect to their application for funding.
